Rare Freehold Opportunity
Within the Baltic Triangle /
Cains Brewery Village area of Liverpool

2,053 SQ.FT. (190.7 SQ.M.)

39 STANHOPE
STREET, LIVERPOOL,
L8 5RE

LOCATION

The property is located within the Cains Brewery Village / Baltic Triangle area of Liverpool City Centre, in close proximity to the Liverpool Waterfront, the retail core of the city centre, Ropewalks and the Knowledge Quarter.

The area has undergone a radical regeneration over the past decade, driven by the Creative Industries sector, which has resulted in the eclectic mix of occupiers and uses evidenced as at today's date. Adjacent occupiers include H1780 Tap & Still Brewery, the Baltic Bakehouse and Eyre & Ellison, whilst within the wider vicinity Baltic Creative, Camp & Furnace, McDonalds and KFC are in occupation.

There are a number of commercial, residential, student and hotel developments either under construction or constructed within the immediate vicinity of the subject site.

DESCRIPTION

The property comprises a 2 storey property. The property is self-contained with rendered brick elevations and a single door access directly off the Stanhope Street thoroughfare. Internally the ground floor is basically rectangular in shape with a WC to the rear and a single staircase. The first floor is similar in configuration with WC to the rear. The accommodation has an attractive open steel truss roof structure with sky lights.
